The school is a mass of individuals. Each expresses himself in a unique way. One is a leader, one a follower; one is a creator, one an acceptor; one is a competitor, one a spectator. With each indispensable expression, a school life is eventually created. Each person relives precious moments of his life in his own way. The annual staff has collected a mass of memories for every person to relive and to enjoy, to remember and to cherish, as that person would so desire, in his own way.

ATTAINMENT

Reaching the final goal and finding it to be the initial step to other goals is a great understanding attained by the graduating class. The tremendous importance of education and training is realized, and the grasp for more knowledge continues to reach out into the future. These are our seniors who have completed their learning at this particular place of education. These are the students who will advance to their own destinies. These are the individuals who will remember and relive this part of their lives, each in a unique way.

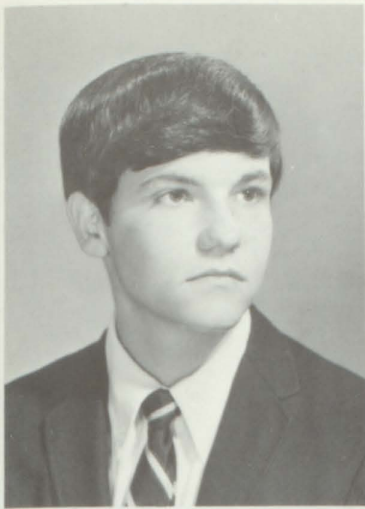

SECOND ROW: Addleton, Sandra Ophelia; Alexander, Rita Dawn; Bailey, Anita Laverne; Bailey, Kathryn Knox; THIRD ROW: Banks, Beverly Ann; Bedingfield, Melinda Ann; Berg, Mary Anne; Blackshear, Janet Lee; FOURTH ROW: Blum, Freda Ellen; Boland, Lynn Marea.

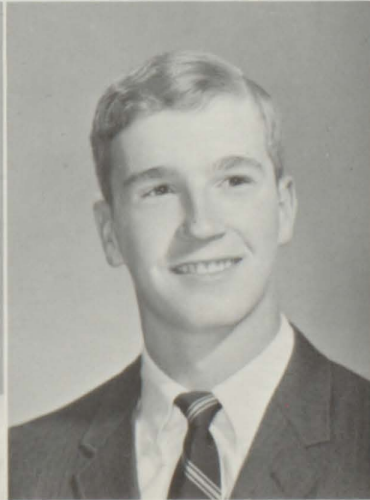

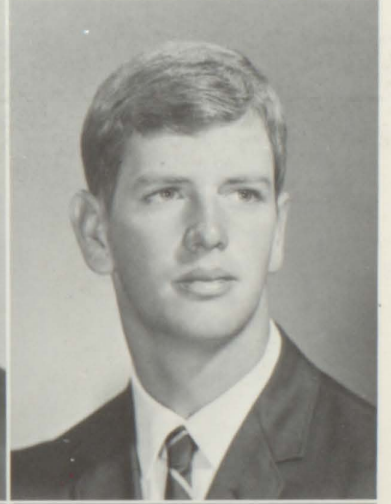

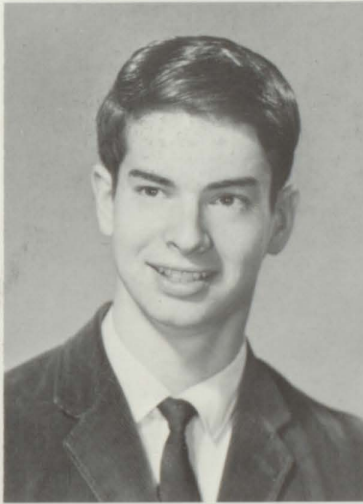

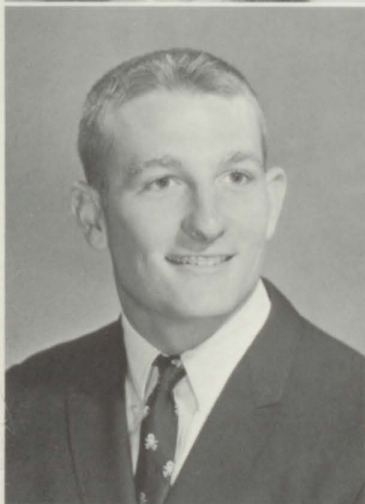

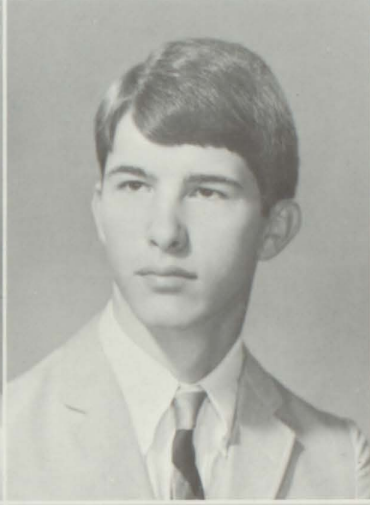

After four years of living and learning experiences in high school and in life, a superior group emerges from the mass. They have suddenly realized that nothing happens by chance but that everything is a result of careful planning. They are rewarded with a deep satisfaction for their continuous efforts to organize and activate the mass. These are the seniors, the students who have accomplished one step toward their ultimate goal, the individuals molded by the part and cast for the future.

Good nature is the very air of a good mind; the sign of a large and generous soul, and the peculiar soil in which virtue prospers.

—Goodman

J. W. McKinnie

There is nothing more to be esteemed than a manly firmness and decision of character.

—Hazlitt

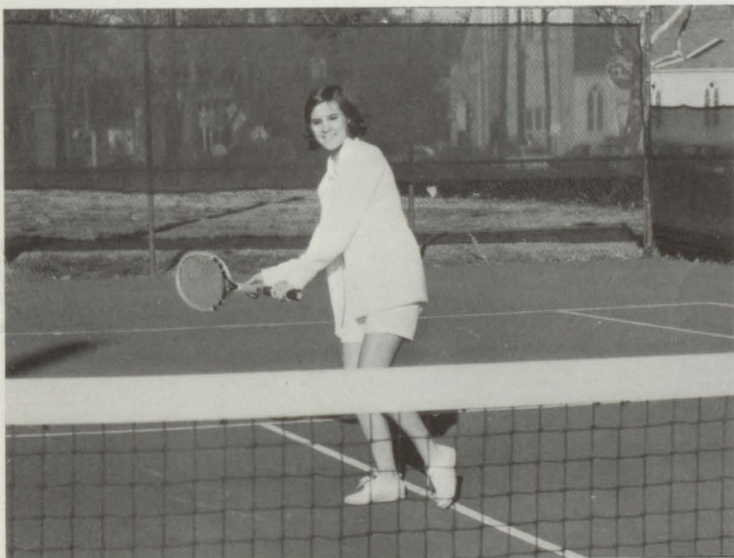

Bill Watson

The superior man is he who develops, in harmonious proportions, his moral,
intellectual, and physical nature.

—Jerold

Mary Anne Berg

This world belongs to the energetic.
—Emerson

Joe Pennone

The most agreeable of all companions is a simple, frank man, without any high pretensions to an oppressive greatness.

—Lessing

Clare Eschmann

Individuality is the salt of common life. You may have to live in a crowd, but you do not have to live like it, nor subsist on its food.

—Henry Von Dyke

Cheryl McDavid
Modest expression is a beautiful setting to the diamond of talent and genius.
—E. H. Chapin

Bob McDavid
No man is free who is not the master of himself.
—Epictetus

Karen Ouzts

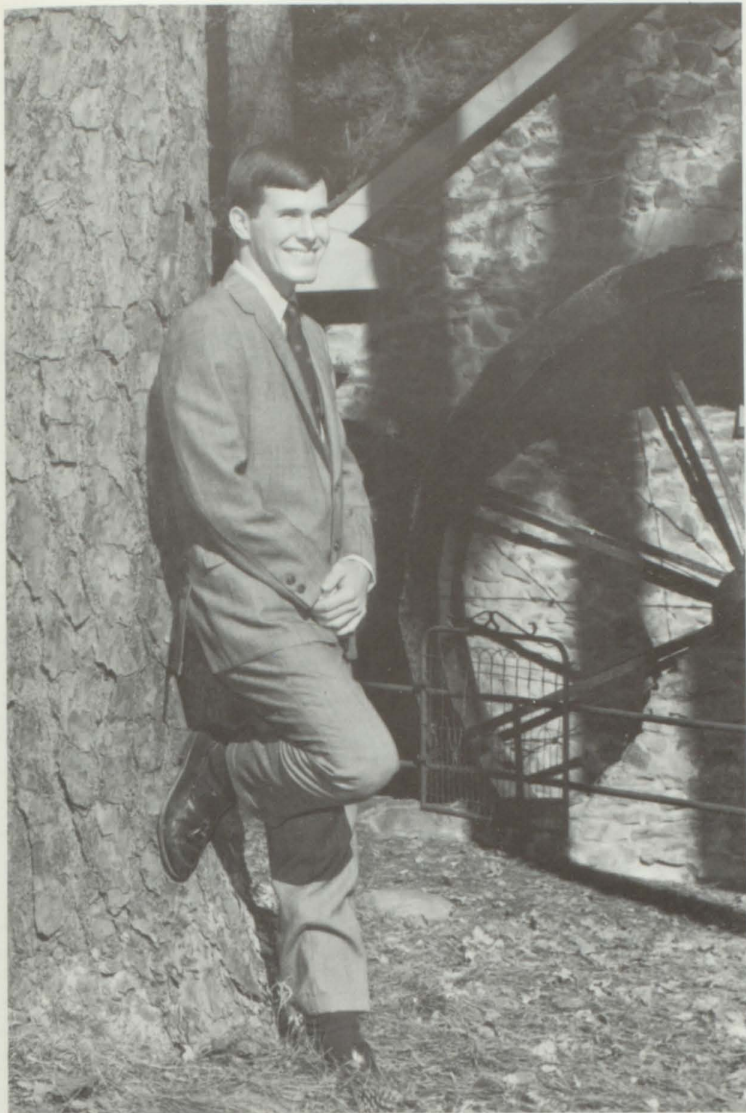

Perfection consists not in doing extraordinary things well, but in doing extraordinary things extraordinary.
—Angelique Arnauld

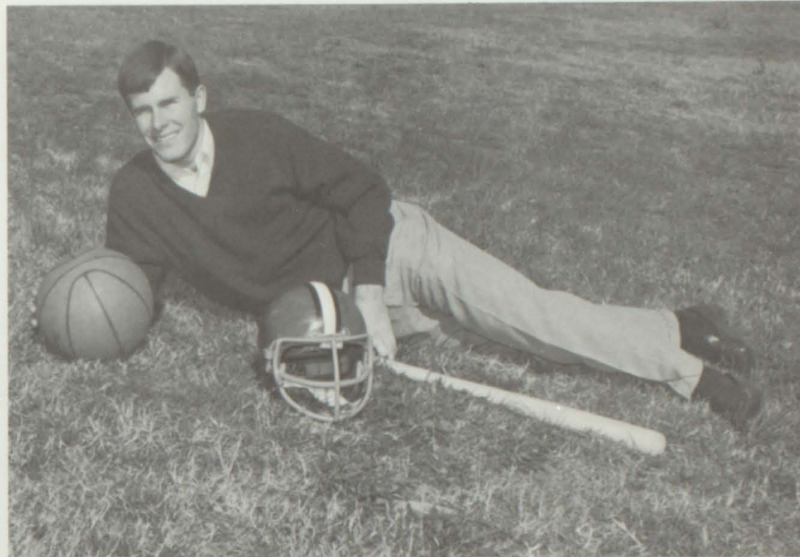

Jeff Bridges

It is better to be making the news than taking it, to be an actor rather than a critic.
—Sir Winston Churchill

Penny Wooten
Nothing is rarer than real goodness.
—Rochefoucauld

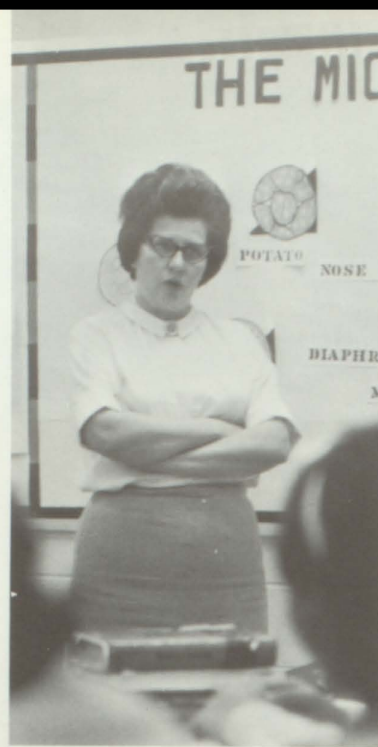

Billy Kilgore
It is not what he has, or even what he does which expresses the worth of a man, but what he is.
—Amiel

GUIDANCE

We recognize our instructors for their diligent guidance and personal desire to furnish us with knowledge, and we express sincere gratitude for their dedication. Through the act of educating they have developed and trained our minds, our capabilities, as well as our characters. They have made a profound impression on our minds, our senses, and our feelings.

DEVELOPMENT

School life, academic and social, influences the development of the student. He comes in contact with people like himself and people entirely different from himself. His mind is expanded, he cultivates a desire to learn, and he wants a clear perception of the truth. His whole being is affected. He is taught facts and skills; he learns obedience; he is given understanding; he receives wisdom.

FIRST ROW: Advisors: Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Wade; Anderson, Jet; Anderson, Linda; SECOND ROW: Baggarly, John; Baker, Ceil; Balkom, Charles; Barfield, Peggy; THIRD ROW: Baskette, Jimmy Leigh; Bassett, Susan; Battcher, Barbara; Bedgood, Joy; Bell, Barbara; FOURTH ROW: Bennett, Catherine; Berg, Jimbo; Bishop, Wayne; Bloodworth, Henry; Bohac, Buck; FIFTH ROW: Bolton, Merry; Booker, Lynn; Bowden, Wayne; Bradley, David; Brady, Mike; SIXTH ROW: Bragg, Michael; Branch, Eddie.

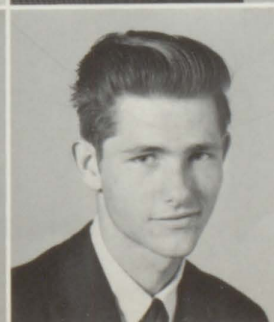

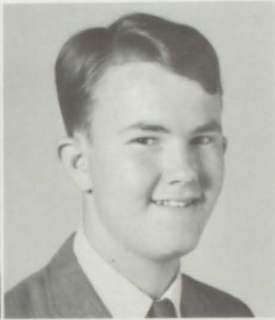

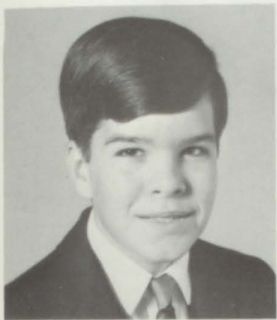

Signs of preparation begin to show themselves as reality of the approaching future shakes this group into action. The juniors find themselves caught in a time of indecision, with one hand reaching forward to the obscure future as the other hand tries to keep the security of the past close by. Those with a seriousness of purpose begin to come forth as separate individuals.

IN MEMORY OF Mac Herndon

Our eyes are holden that we cannot see things that stare us in the face, until the hour arrives when the mind is ripened; then we behold them, and the time when we saw them not is like a dream.

COMPETITION

The excitement, the depression, the enthusiasm, the dejection, all these are felt in the field of sports. From the extremes of victory and defeat to the extremes of laughter and tears, the mass is transformed into one whole, one emotion, one force. Together the whole stands fixed upon one decision and screams it to the top of its lungs— WE ARE THE BULLDOGS—and couldn't be prouder. No matter what the sport may be, the fans are there, the crowd is cheering, and the mass is pulling for their team, full of uncontrollable excitement and enthusiasm.

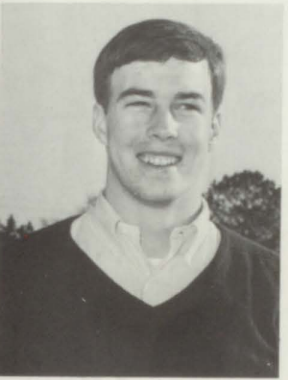

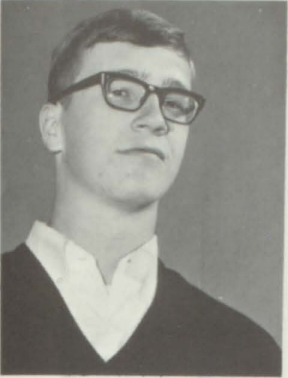

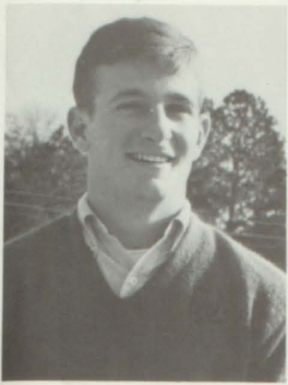

Dedicated, hard-working, constant. This was our football team. The players who devoted themselves to their school and its students, the athletes who gave their best, the coaches who, through diligent guidance, molded the individual into the whole. And with the competitors there were the spectators who stood in delirious expectation, awaiting the decision of victory or defeat, feeling the strong excitement and the struggle to be victorious. All too soon the gridiron was stilled, and our Bulldogs held a 2-8 record. The time, the tremendous effort, the sweat, the tears, and the exhaustion, the overwhelming rapture of victory and the painful injury of defeat, all these were a part of the season.

Mark Smith opened the season on a sour note with a 21-0 loss to Jordan. Even Coach Meek's last minute instructions could not secure a victory for the Bulldogs. Lower picture, Billy Kilgore tried a quarterback sneak only to be smothered by Jordan interior. Bob McDavid was injured in this initial game and did not see action again until the Willingham game. Seniors: Jeff Bridges, Ed Burdette, John Dupree.

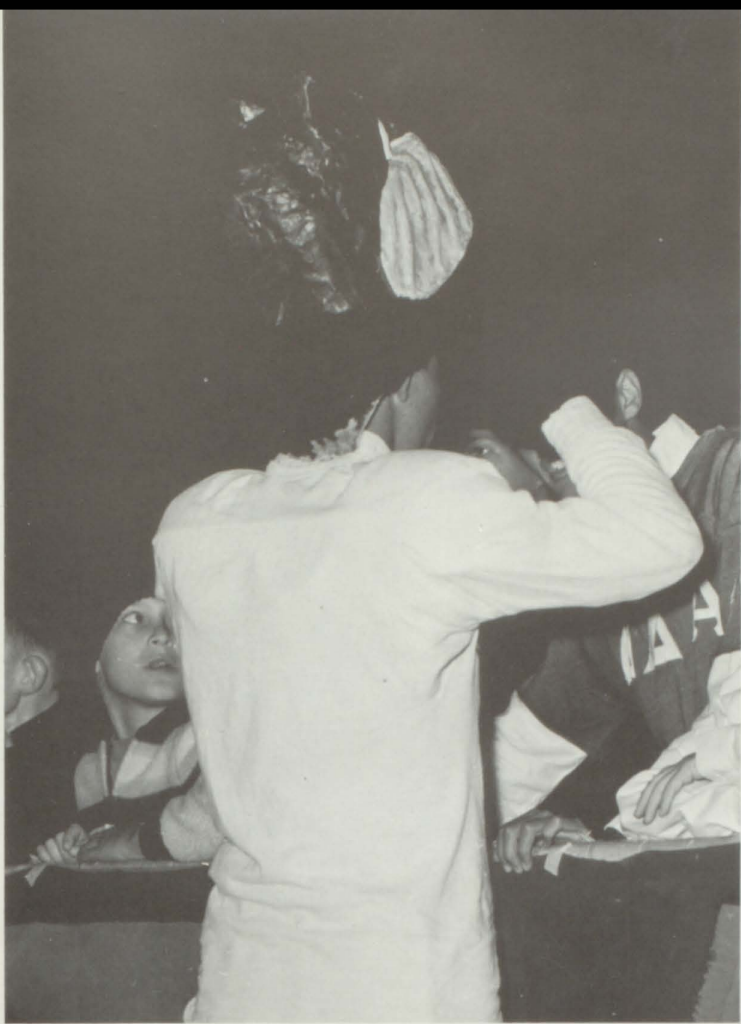

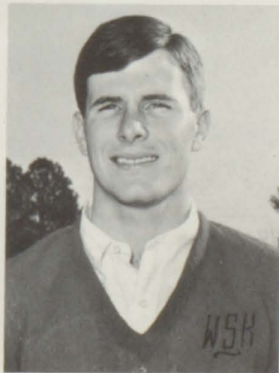

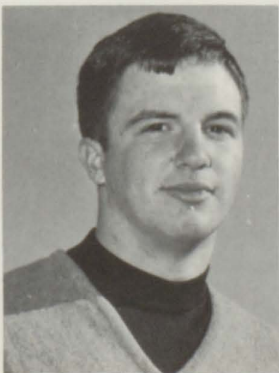

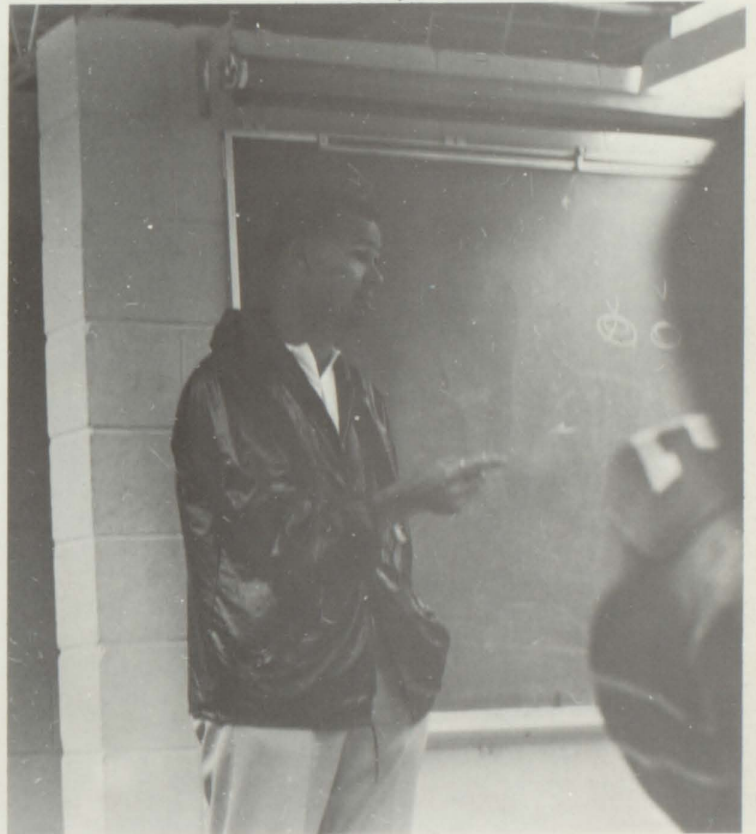

Even an inspiring pre-game talk by injured Bob McDavid before the Ram tilt could not reduce the numerous Bulldog mistakes, which allowed the cross-town rivals of Willingham to snare a 25-14 win. Upper right, Willingham quarterback, Wayne Jones, skirts down the sidelines, as Mark Smith's Benjie Edwards closes in for the kill. Lower left, Willingham ace, Alan McCoury, slices through the Bulldog line as Julius Mullis and Mike Fender apply brakes.

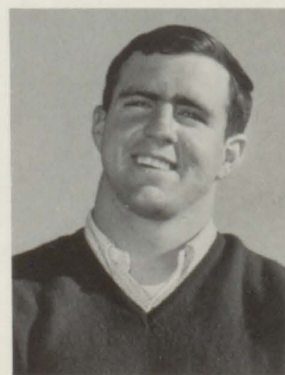

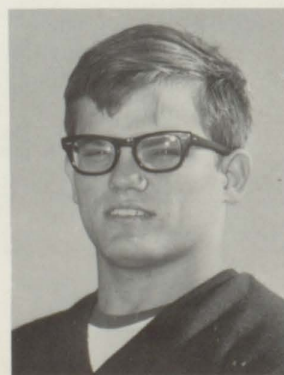

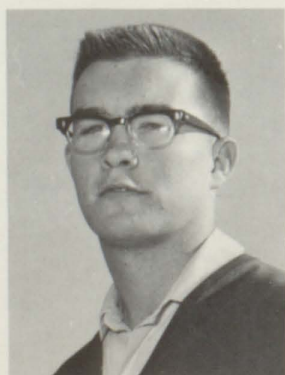

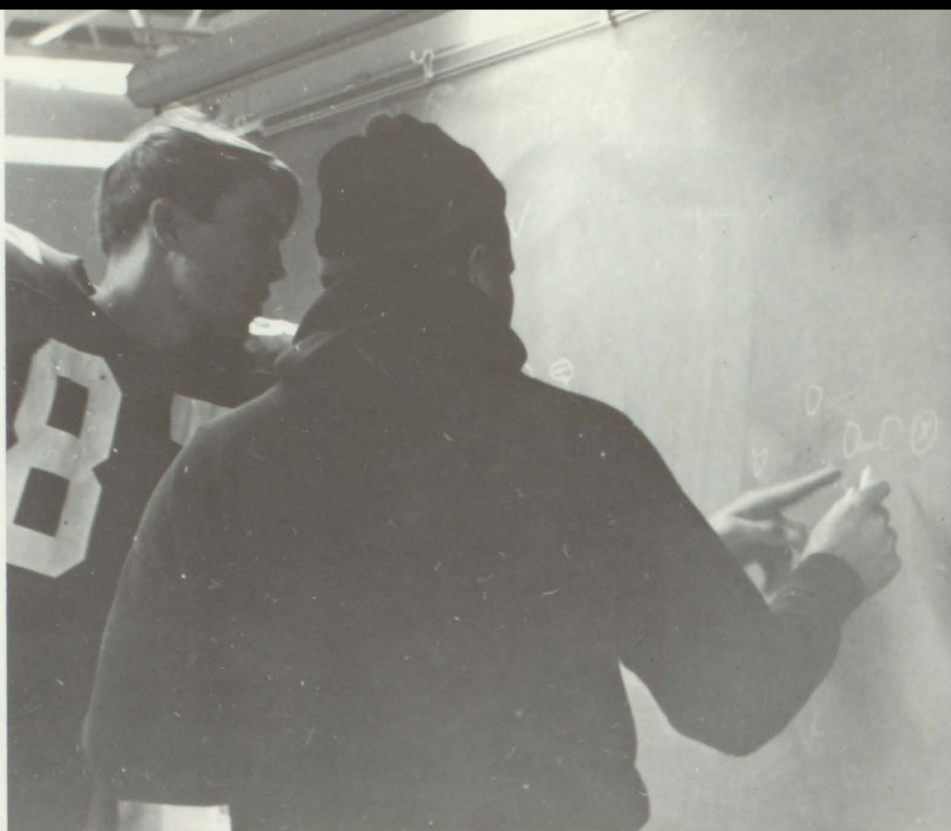

Daylight-Savings Time catches the Bulldogs' prayer with a glimmer of light before the game. During half-time Coach Williams diagrams the x's and o's of the complicated world of football. Seniors: Mike Fender, Casey Jones, Billy Kilgore.

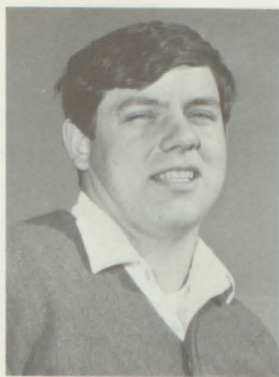

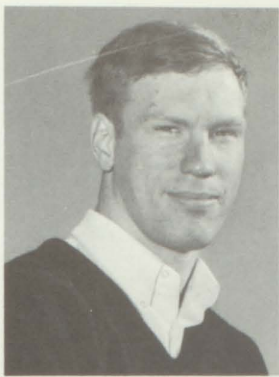

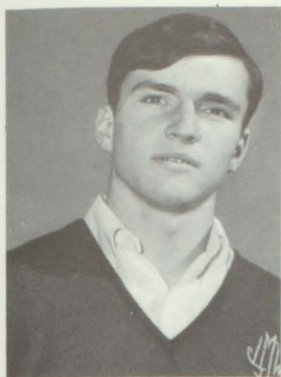

The Bulldogs get their first taste of victory as they down Tift County, 14-6. Kilgore is tripped at the line for a small gain but the bench gives a sign as Edward's boot is true. Seniors: Leslie Kimberly, Garry McLeod, Bob McDavid.

The Bulldogs gallantly try to knock off Columbus, the Number One team in Triple A, but fall short in the fourth quarter because of a 21 point outburst by Columbus. The powerful Bulldogs fought on even terms with the Blue Devils but even the strains for extra yards by Kilgore and the urgent directions between the coaches via telephone could not pull the Bulldogs on to victory. The final score, 33-12, favored the Blue Devils. Seniors: J. W. McKinnie, Julius Mullis, Don Odom.

It was a special night, distinguished from all others. The crowd was joined together by an intangible quality of expectancy. Although the Bulldogs gave their all, the Blue Devils could not be stopped. Feelings of anxiety for the game mingled with feelings of anticipation as half-time approached. As the entire crowd listened anxiously for the long-awaited outcome of weeks of preparation and expectation, Mark Smith proudly crowned its first homecoming queen: Miss Penny Wooten. Upper Left: Miss Mary Anne Berg, First Runner-up. Upper Right: Miss Penny Faircloth, Second Runner-up.

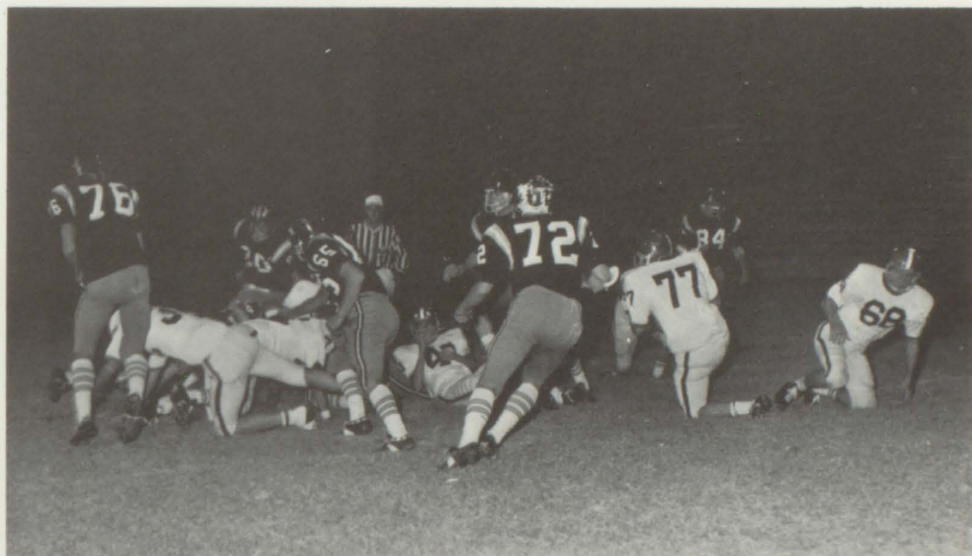

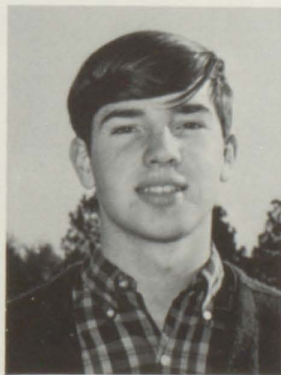

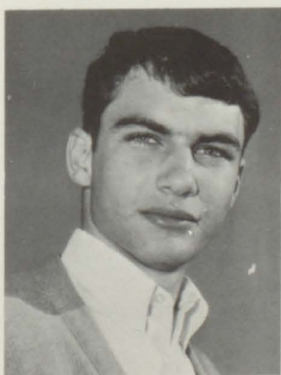

"Those river rats are back" was the cry but the Bulldogs' try for two in a row was doused by cross-town rival, Lanier. Even though the Bulldogs drew the first blood, the Poets' razzle-dazzle proved too much for the Dogs, ending the game with 35-21. Upper Right, McKinnie hauls in a pass. Middle right, Kilgore rolls right and finds plenty of running room.

Fifteen seniors rounded out their high school career against Moultrie. Wearing all White for the first time ever, on request by the seniors, Mark Smith put on an aerial exhibition but the outcome was indicative of the season, as the Bulldogs lost, 27-13. Middle right, draw play to Dirk Thomas is diagnosed by Moultrie defense. Seniors: Joe Penone, Glenn Shelby, Bill Watson.

The Bulldogs, under fledgling Coach Butch Clifton, rose from the ranks of a Region 1-AAA doormat to the status of a much respected, hell-for-leather team. Finally securing third place in the Region Tournament, the Bulldogs ended the season with an 11-12 record. Coach: Butch Clifton. Team: Scott Judd, Billy Kilgore, Casey Jones, Jerry Lister, Charlie Anderson, Frank Prince, J. W. McKinnie, Jag Gholson, John Skalko, Jim Schmitt, Jeff Bridges, Milton Glover.

Basketball

The Mark Smith Bullpups proved to be a potential powerhouse of energy by defeating all their opponents save cross-town Lanier. Throwing up a tenacious defense and an abundance of hustle, making up for a height deficiency, the B-Team handed Coach Ben Snipes a fine record for his first season at the helm. Front Row: Steve Skalko, Minton Williams, Jack Henderson, Ricky Churchwell, Richard Peek, William Jolly. Back Row: Coach Ben Snipes, Cam Bonifay, Danny Lawhon, David Lee, Graig Hertwig, Clifford More, Dirk Thomas.

The ninth grade Bulldogs, under the leadership of Coach Bud Weston closed their season with a 6-7 record.

Under the guidance of Coach Minton Williams, the Mark Smith eighth graders ended the season with a 9-8 record and captured third place in the Mark Smith Eighth Grade Invitational Tournament.

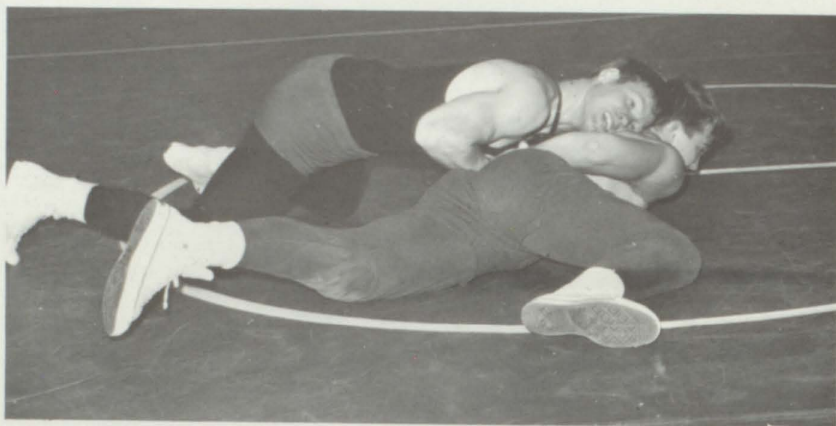

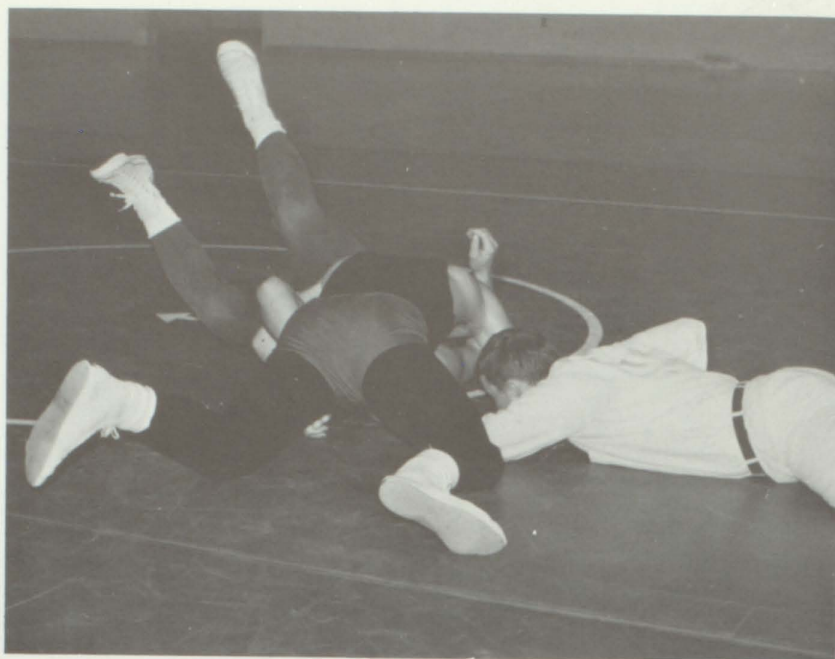

School spirit as well as a spirit of competition is promoted at Mark Smith through intramural activities. In this year's Intramural Basketball Tournament, Supervision 201 won the upper division title while Supervision 103 was tops in the lower division.

Wrestling

Crippled this season by many injuries, the Mark Smith mat team ended up with a disappointing 2-8 record. Despite this fact, the Bulldogs, coached by Leo Brooks and Bonwell Royal, managed to send six of their wrestlers to the State Tournament.

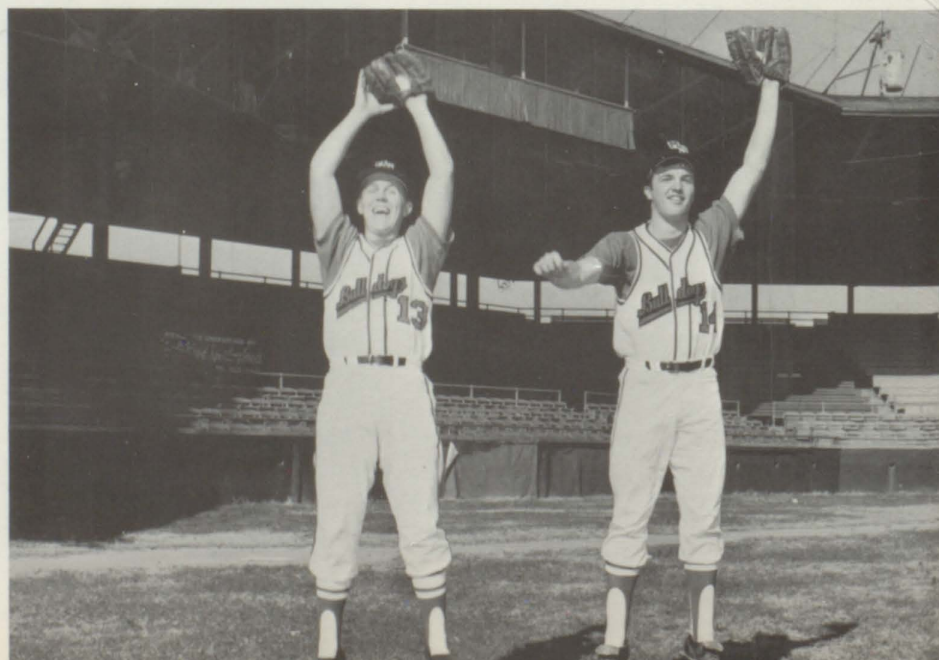

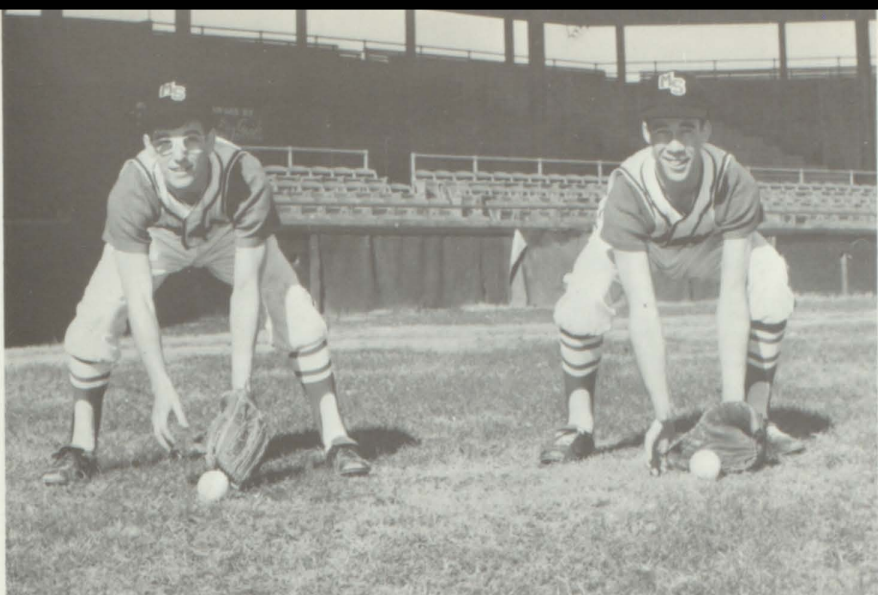

Coach Bobby Brown sets his sight on another outstanding baseball season. Winners of the Lem Clark Tournament for the past two years, the Bulldogs will be going for their third victory this year. The outlook appears successful for the Bulldogs, returning ten lettermen to the diamond. Team: Lynn Wood, John Skalko, Ricky Churchwell, Billy Kilgore, Frankie Brown, Casey Jones, Donald Willis, Benjie Edwards, Mike Clark, Cam Bonifay, Benny Galyon, William Simpson, Jeff Granade; Manager, Raymond Jerry.

Baseball

Virtually wiped out by graduation, Coach Bill Meeks knows that hard work and constant practice always produces a winner. He must especially concentrate on cultivating sprinters and fieldmen to fill the vacancies. Front row: Glenn Shelby, William Fountain, Richard Peek, Tony Henderson, Bob Budwine, Mike Jackson, Eddie Branch, Mike Brady, Van Riddle. Back row: Danny Sloan, Bob Windum, Jag Gholson, Brian McDavid, Danny Lawhon, Bob McDavid, Van Carroll, Donald Stroup, Chuck Wells, Dirk Thomas, Steven Bailey, Mike Craft.

Track

Golf

Coach Minton Williams takes over as golf coach succeeding Coach Leo Brooks. This year's team, John Dupree, Paul Kempa, Tom Lawrence, Ronald Swicord, promises to be outstanding with two of last year's starters returning.

Tennis

Coach Bill Avirett returns all four of his '67 starters, and the Bulldog netters hope for a fine season. Last year was a hard road to hoe but the added experience gives a brighter indication for the future. Team: Jim Bo Berg, Kenny Reardon, Mitchell Schwaber, Danny Lawhon, David Redd. Not Pictured: Henry Dohn.

Lasseter Physical Education Department

Under the stimulating leadership of the gym instructors, we find the students vigorously engaged in systematic exercises, outside games, and refreshing play. The gym is the center of exertion, the center of training and improvement, whether it be physical, intellectual, or moral. The students are taught skill and dexterity, as well as the concept of good sportsmanship, involving honesty, rivalry, and grateful acceptance of results.

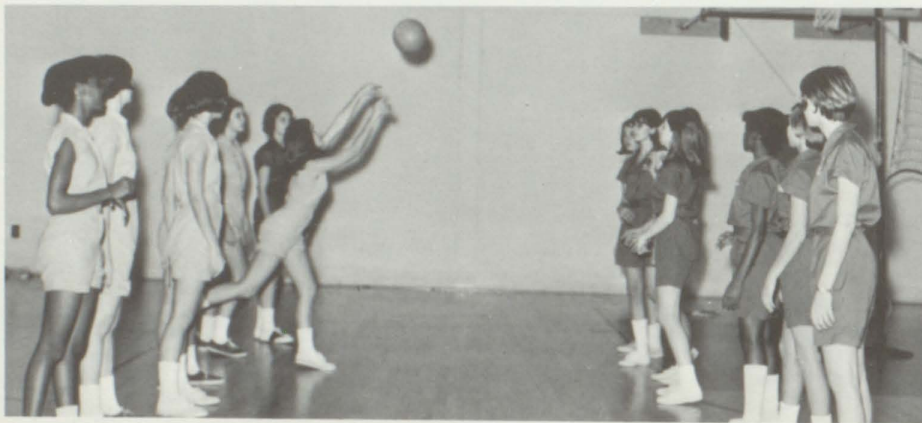

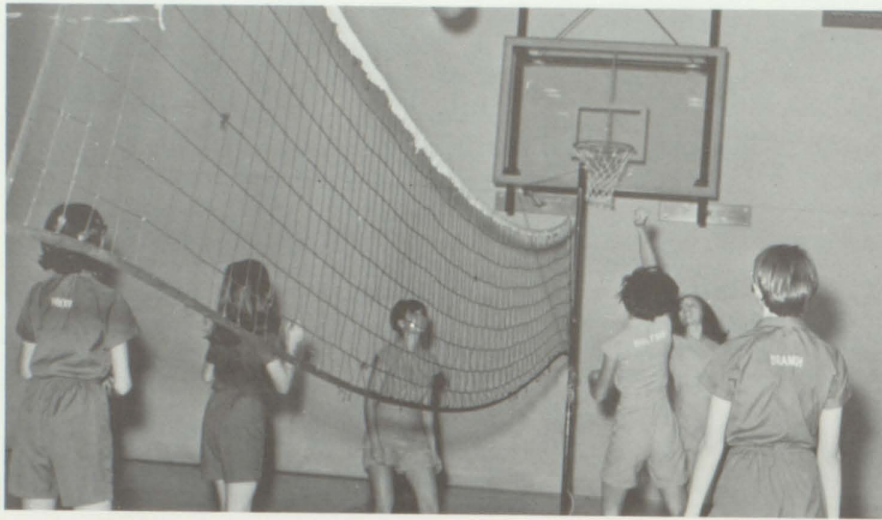

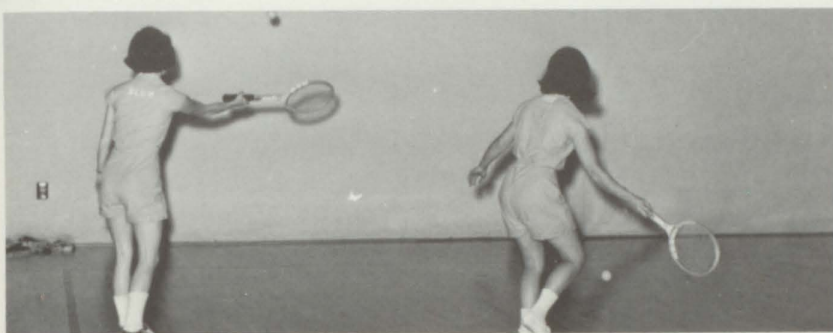

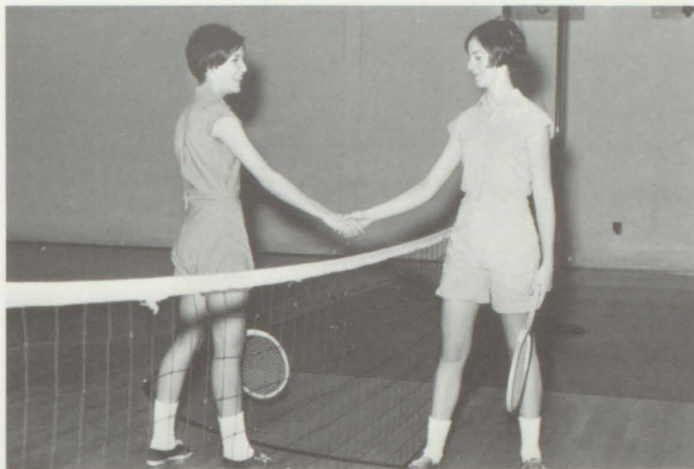

The girls have their own interpretations in the field of athletics. Any type of action, from dribbling down the basketball court to sack-racing a soccer field, can always be found in the girls' physical education department. Learning to draw a bow, as well as to hit the target, can be quite an experience for many of the students, but the greatest moment comes when one has mastered the art of putting on a shin guard.

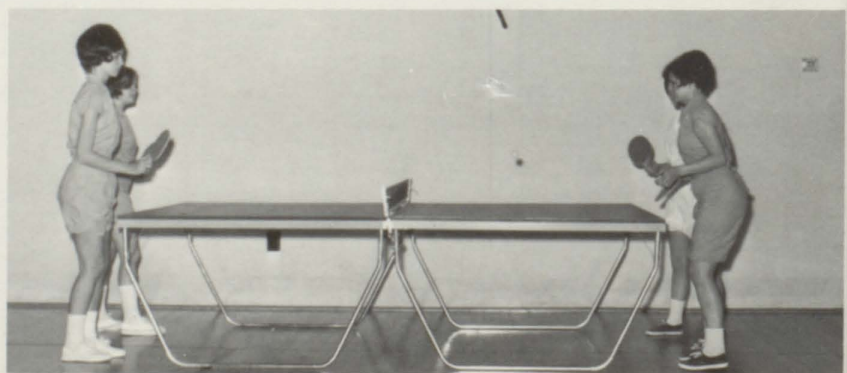

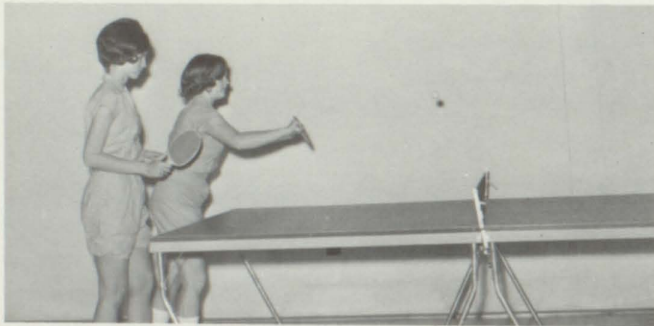

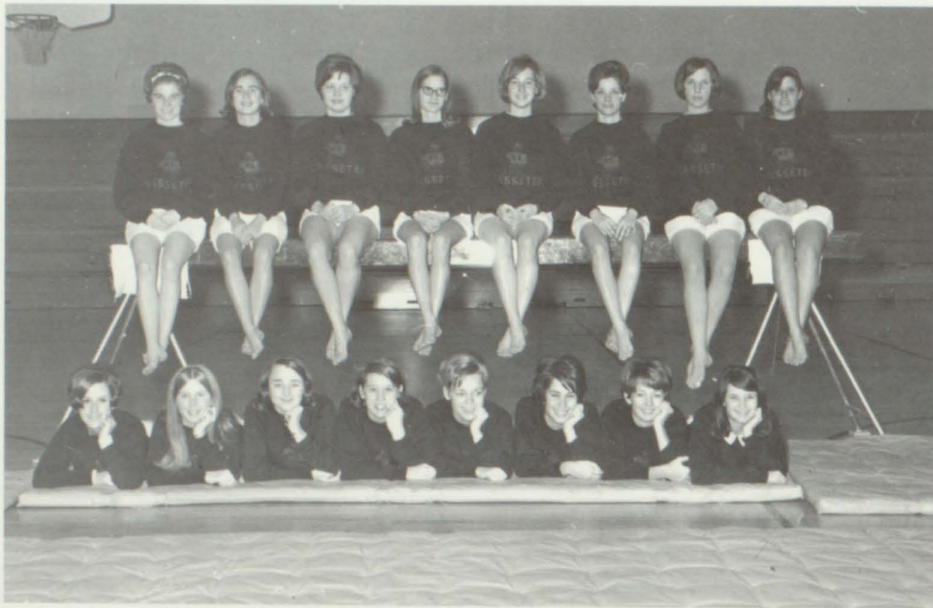

Baseball is another masculine sport that the girls have tried to adopt. Simple actions like throwing the ball, catching the ball, and even hitting the ball become tremendous tasks of coordination, a state of being which the instructors have tried to instill in their pupils. Tennis, a source of invigorating exercise, is another favorite sport of the girls.

Cheering is another activity supervised by the gym department. The cheerleaders hold one of the most time-consuming, yet tremendously rewarding, positions connected with the school activities. Not only do they lead in cheers and chants during the games but they also perform many other duties besides actual cheering. Their outside time and effort put into painting signs, planning pep rallies, and just plain practicing must be acknowledged in order to give these girls the recognition due to them. They are the motivators of school spirit, a force which can almost cause a victory by itself.

PARTICIPATION

The school is divided into specific groups which render specific services and aids to particular persons or things. These are the clubs, the organizations, the individual units formed for the benefit of association with others and for the purpose of serving others. Through these organizations, the students become involved in active participation, and each begins to learn a little more about himself, about his friends, and about his world. Concern, preparation, and appreciation are the simple, yet complex, by-products of each club's final output.

Despite the howling of the critics, the Mark Smith Bulldogs have gained a truly great victory, and established themselves as a threat in 1-AAA. How was it done? Through skill, desire, and persistence! We here at every reason to have

Turner Attends General Assembly

Mark Smith sent a representative to the General Assembly to Macon on February 10, a person who was the various legislators. Established primary exchange. PUBLISHED BY THE MARK SMITH MAGAZINE. Macon, Ga., then was a boy named Roger Turner, a junior of fourteen represents Bibb County, with at least one from each school. This was part of a state-wide program to acquaint students of government with the workings of our General Assembly. The representatives were selected by their government teachers.

The students had to furnish their own transportation. They arrived at the State Capitol at 9 A. M. After arriving, they were introduced to the members of the Bibb delegation, for whom they were allowed to tour the facilities at the Capitol. They observed exhibits, toured the different floors, observed the activities there, and were permitted to sit on the floor of the House and

ADVERTISEMENTS

The 1967-68 Markseter Staff would like to express sincere appreciation for the cooperation of individuals and groups in making possible the production of this annual. The Staff, as well as the students, feel that an annual is a precious collection of memories that are very dear to each. Without this financial support, the creation of the Markseter would not have been possible.
